Milton Keynes Libraries – Access to Wi-Fi Policy

Milton Keynes Libraries is committed to providing free and safe access to Wi-Fi to those who live in, work in, study in or visit Milton Keynes.

All users must accept the 'Terms and Conditions' statement that is displayed on the screen. If a user does not accept the Terms and Conditions their session will be automatically terminated.

Terms and Conditions of Access - To ensure equitable use of facilities:

- Milton Keynes Libraries provides access to Wi-Fi in all our libraries to all members of the community.
- Milton Keynes Libraries is not responsible for the accuracy, validity, legality or usefulness of information available on the Internet, which is a global electronic network.
- Customers may not transmit any material in violation of any laws. This includes, but is not limited to, copyrighted material, threatening or obscene material, pornographic material, or material protected by trade secret.
- Milton Keynes Libraries accepts no responsibility for damage of materials or loss of files arising from the use of library ICT facilities.
- Library Service staff have the right to deny any customer access to facilities if they misuse them.
- All customers must accept the Terms & Conditions statement that is displayed on screen after they log on. If a user does not accept the guidelines their session will be automatically terminated. Security
- Wi-Fi usage may be monitored electronically or manually by staff.
- Filtering software is used in an attempt to screen offensive material. However, filtering mechanisms do not guarantee that all inappropriate material is blocked; the Library Service cannot be held responsible for the content of the Internet.

A mobile phone that can receive text messages (SMS) is required to access this network. Enter your mobile phone number and you will receive a login code for access. Standard SMS charges will apply.
