TEACHER OF BUSINESS STUDIES (TMS/UPS) NQT's welcome

The Governors at St. Paul's Catholic School have an exciting opportunity to recruit a Teacher of Business Studies to join this successful department in September 2019. The person appointed will be an excellent teacher able to teach Business Studies across a range of courses (including GCSE, A Level and BTEC Level 2 & 3). The successful candidate will also be expected to contribute towards the teaching of the Computer Science curriculum to Year 7 and 8 pupils.

St. Paul's is a growing and successful Catholic school which continues to celebrate and promote Science through our previous college status. Our commitment to excellent teaching and learning can be demonstrated through bespoke CPD opportunities and through the management of a growing and successful training school.

All staff members are committed to the care and success of pupils and working in a setting where values of forgiveness, concern for others and respect are shared as the core values of St. Paul's regardless of faith.

For further details and an application form please visit the school website www.st-pauls.org.uk, e-mail enquiries@st-pauls.org.uk or call 01908 669735

Closing date for applications Monday 25th February 2019 at 9.00am

All appointments are subject to a satisfactory enhanced DBS disclosure. St. Paul's is committed to the safeguarding of children and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment.
