New Chapter "is a happy, calm and welcoming place and really lives up to its own motto: Learning, Love and Laughter. Pupils behave well, follow instructions and work hard". Ofsted December 2016

We are looking to employ an effective practitioner to join our vibrant teaching team. We have a proven track record of developing teaching staff's classroom practice and leadership skills.

If you want to make a difference to young people's lives, we are looking for an inspiring and highly motivated classroom practitioner with a proven record of good/outstanding teaching. Therefore, if you would like to join our friendly, enthusiastic and hard-working team we look forward to receiving your application.

We will happily accept applications from Early Career or upper pay scale teachers.

All applicants must:

- have a passion for learning and a desire to engage children in all aspects of school life;
- demonstrate a consistently strong classroom practice;
- be dedicated to the welfare and achievement of every child;
- be able to inspire, challenge and motivate all children;
- be creative, innovative and have a passion for improvement;
- be forward thinking and committed to raising standards;
- have very good organisation and communication skills;
- be prepared to strive to achieve outstanding practice.

We can offer you:

- enthusiastic learners who take pride in their work;
- the support of a friendly and motivated leadership and staff team, who show an uncompromising commitment to improving learners' educational experiences;
- an evolving curriculum, inspired by children's desire to learn and teachers' creativity;
- a purposeful and nurturing environment where learners are encouraged to strive for excellence;
- the opportunity to play an active part in the school's development; excellent CPD opportunities to further your development as a class teacher.
