Dear Helen

Thank you for your email. Historic England don't intend to appear at the inquiry so we won't be represented or be calling witnesses. Our position remains that which we set out in our advice letters to the planning authority,

Dear Shamsul, David W and Tony,

The Inspector for the above appeal will be holding a telephone case management conference with the Council and the appellant at 14.00 on 23 June 2020. He will wish to establish a draft timetable for the inquiry. It would therefore be helpful if you could indicate the level of involvement that you envisage your organisation will have. For example, whether you expect to be represented or to call expert evidence. It has not yet been decided whether the inquiry will be a face-to-face event or a virtually held event. This matter is under review and will be discussed at the case management conference. I should be grateful to receive your reply by 19 June 2020.

Kind regards

Helen
