5. Programme Preferences

5.1. Online Card Management

Our online services combine live payment information and access to current and historic statements via ClearSpend, plus more sophisticated management reporting through Smart Data for onecard or IntelliLink for Corporate Card and Purchasing Card.

ClearSpend is a free web and mobile app that gives you complete control of your account in real-time and lets employees check their balance on the go. ClearSpend works across all the major platforms, whether that's Android, iOS or through your web browser. To find out more and download the app, visit natwest.com/clearspend.

The benefits of requesting additional access to Smart Data for onecard or IntelliLink for Corporate Card and Purchasing Card, include:

- a complete view of your organisation's card spending patterns at business, department and merchant level
- data export for analysis or to integrate with your accounting system, and
- ability to manage, review and approve employee expense transactions online

For more information, please speak to your Relationship Manager.

If you require online card management, please ensure the email address requested in section 2.1 is completed.

5.2 Statements

• Please advise your preferred date – from 3rd to 28th inclusive

• Optional paper memo statements

Cardholders can access their statements online by registering on ClearSpend, but if you would like a paper statement to be sent to cardholders, please place a cross in the box and provide each cardholder's details and business correspondence address by completing a Cardholder Schedule (Excel).

6. Authority to accept requests for information and instructions

- For Programme Administrators the organisation agrees and confirms that NatWest is authorised to provide information on any of the Commercial Card accounts in the organisation's name to a Programme Administrator provided:
 - written, fax, email requests reasonably appear to be signed by a Programme Administrator
 - verbal requests from a Programme Administrator can be identified by agreed security questions.
- For Authorised Signatories the organisation agrees and confirms that NatWest is authorised to provide information and accept instructions on any of the Commercial Card accounts in the organisation's name from an Authorised Signatory provided:
 - written, fax, email requests reasonably appear to be signed by an Authorised Signatory.
 - verbal requests from an Authorised Signatory can be identified by agreed security questions.
- If NatWest cannot identify a Programme Administrator or Authorised Signatory by agreed security questions in relation to a verbal request or instruction (as the case may be) then NatWest may request such request or instruction to be made in writing.
- The organisation will notify NatWest of any changes to an Authorised Signatory & Programme Administrator. Such notifications must be in writing and reasonably appear to be signed by an Authorised Signatory.
- The provisions of this Authority are in addition to and not in substitution for the provisions of the organisation's prevailing authorisation and the appropriate product Terms and Conditions.

7. Authorisation by the business/organisation

Signed in accordance with the card programme Application Form or as amended by previously completed Amendment Forms. If a School is applying for an additional billing unit then the authorised signatories from the Council associated with the School must sign.

How we will use your information

Who we are

At National Westminster Bank PLC we do all we can to respect your rights to privacy and the protection of your personal information. We are a member of NatWest Group and this notice sets out a summary of what we, and other companies in NatWest Group, do with your information in order to run our business and provide our customers with products and services.

We encourage you to read our full privacy notice on our website www.natwest.com/privacy for more detailed information on how we use your information and your rights in relation to that. Our privacy notice may be updated from time to time and we will communicate any changes to you and publish the updated notice on our website.

The information we use and where we get it from

We collect and process various categories of personal information, including basic information such as name and contact details, and information about financial circumstances, accounts and transactions.

Most of your information will have been provided by you (or our customer), or created through the use of our products and services. We also collect information from the technology you use when dealing with us and from third party organisations (such as other NatWest Group companies, credit reference agencies or public sources).

In order to protect us or you, for example to prevent fraud or to make our services accessible to you, we may also process certain special categories of information, such as information about your health, or information about your personal characteristics (biometric information).

Where permitted by law, we may process information about criminal convictions or offences and alleged offences for specific and limited activities and purposes, such as to perform checks to prevent and detect crime, to comply with laws relating to money laundering, fraud, terrorist financing, bribery and corruption, and for international sanctions.

For more information about the types and sources of information we process please see our full privacy notice.

Your rights

You have certain legal rights to control what we do with your information. This includes a right to get access to your personal information; to request us to correct or update incorrect information; to object to or request that we restrict processing your information in certain circumstances; to object to direct marketing; and to receive the personal information you provided in a portable format.

For more information about your rights, including how to exercise them and the circumstances in which they apply, please see our full privacy notice or contact us at 03457 888 444 or contact your Relationship Manager.

It is important to understand that in some cases, exercising your rights may mean that we are no longer able to provide you with products or services.

If you wish to raise a complaint on how we have handled your personal information, you can contact our Data Protection Officer at 03457 888 444.

We hope that we can address any concerns you may have, but you can always contact the Information Commissioner's Office (ICO). For more information, visit www.ico.org.uk.

How we and other NatWest Group companies use your information

We and other NatWest Group companies use your information primarily to provide you with products and services, to better understand our customers' needs and improve the products and services we offer, and for the day to day running of our business. We also use it to comply with laws and regulations that apply to us and to protect our business, our customers and employees.

For more detailed information about the purposes for which we use your information, please see Schedule A of our full privacy notice (Schedule of Processing Purposes).

Sharing your information outside NatWest Group

We keep your information confidential and will only share your information outside of NatWest Group for the purposes mentioned in our privacy notice. This may include sharing with third parties such as service providers, credit reference and fraud prevention agencies and law enforcement agencies or regulators,

For more detailed information about the third parties with whom we may share your information, please see Section 7 of our full privacy notice (Sharing with third parties).

Transferring information overseas

Most of the information we hold on you will be used and stored in the UK. However, we may transfer your information overseas as some of our operations, regulators and third party providers are not based in the UK.

We will only transfer your information where lawfully permitted and in compliance with applicable laws.

For more information about overseas transfers and your associated rights, please see Section 8 of our full privacy notice.

Marketing

Unless you have told us not to, we will send you marketing information relating to products and services that we think will be of interest and relevant to you. If you change your mind and no longer want to receive these communications you can tell us at any time by contacting us at 0131 556 8555 or Relay UK 18001 0131 556 8555, emailing largemarketadmin@natwest.com or speaking to your Relationship Manager or Business Manager Team.

NatWest Group will not share your information with third parties for their own marketing purposes without your permission.

Communications about your account

We may contact you with information relevant to the operation and maintenance of your account by a variety of means, including via online banking, mobile banking, email, text message, post and/or telephone. If at any point in the future you change your contact details you should tell us promptly about those changes.

Credit reference and fraud prevention agencies

When you apply for a product or service we may request information about you from credit reference agencies and we will explain the details and what that means for you when you apply. We use a system of credit scoring to assess your application and decisions may be taken based solely on automated checks of information from credit reference and fraud prevention agencies and internal NatWest Group records.

We will continue to share information with credit reference agencies about how you manage your account, for example account balances and repayment history. We use and share information because we have a duty to prevent fraud and money laundering, to manage our risk and protect our business and to comply with laws that apply to us (such as checking who you are and making sure our products are right for you).

We also check and share information with fraud prevention agencies. If we identify or suspect fraud we will record this with fraud prevention agencies to prevent fraud and money laundering, and you could be refused services, finance or employment. Credit reference and fraud prevention agencies use and share your information with other organisations because they have to prevent fraud and money laundering, to verify your identity, to protect their business and to comply with laws.

For more detail please see Section 11 of our full Privacy Notice. For further information about credit reference and fraud prevention agencies and how they use personal information, please visit: Experian (www.experian.co.uk/crain), Equifax (www.equifax.co.uk/crain), Callcredit (www.callcredit.co.uk/crain), CIFAS (www.cifas.org.uk/privacy-notice) and Hunter (www.nhunter.co.uk/privacypolicy).

How long we keep your information

We don't keep your information for longer than we need to, which is usually up to six years after your relationship with the bank ends, unless we are required to keep it longer (for example due to a court order or investigation by law enforcement agencies or regulators).

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure with us and with third parties who act on our behalf. We use many tools to make sure that your information remains confidential and accurate and we may monitor or record calls, emails, text messages or other communications in order to protect you and us.
