

EYFS Teaching Assistant Required asap 8.30am to 3.30pm Monday to Friday

Pay Grade B1 (FTE £21,575 pro rata) 39 weeks - term time only
Grade D1 (£22,777 pro rata) may be offered for applicants with significant experience and qualifications to support individual pupils with additional needs

The ideal candidate will have experience of working with SEND children. We are looking for a supportive, caring and enthusiastic person to join as a practitioner in our Early Years team, who is able to engage and communicate well, and able to model the expectations within our Reception class.

Flexibility, a willingness to uphold our values, and manage change as our school grows are key skills needed for all TA posts at St Mary's.

In your application please specify your individual skills and strengths, including any interventions, specialist provision or training you have undertaken that you consider invaluable to the needs of the Early Years children within your care.

Flexibility and patience required to nurture pupils whose day may look different every day. Good basic literacy and maths skills are essential for all posts currently advertised. We are an expanding and increasingly diverse Church of England primary school and are proud of our ethos Luke 10:27 'Love your neighbour as yourself' within the newly developing Eagle Farm area of Milton Keynes.

Visits are warmly welcomed, alternatively visit our virtual tour on the school website.
