The Governing Body is looking for a confident, enthusiastic and caring Play Worker for our new breakfast and after school provision. Someone who is committed to creating a stimulating and varied programme of activities for our children in a safe and secure environment.

Essentials for this position:

- To have a passion for learning - showing your love of learning enthuses the children and inspires children to be their best – at GTS we are growing aspirational citizens of the future!
- To support the emotional, behavioural and pastoral needs of all children in our care.
- To be patient, as every child is unique and deserves your time (and time to shine!)
- To be adaptable and flexible to the daily routine - every day is different...really different!
- To have a sense of humour - laughter and fun is key to a happy school!
- To go home knowing you are valued and have a key impact on the learning of the children in your care.
- Show a determination to improve your skills, leading your own journey and collaborating with others.
- To promote the school's values and be a positive role model, including working as part of a team - teamwork makes the dream work!
- A commitment to enhance and enrich our drive towards maintaining an outstanding offer
- Contribution to the school and wider community
- A secure knowledge of safeguarding and child protection procedures
