About our School:

Caroline Haslett Primary is a big school with a small school ethos. Our last Ofsted report graded us as Outstanding.

A unifying focus on pupils' spiritual, moral, social and cultural development is woven through everyday interactions and the curriculum. As a result, the school is a harmonious and respectful place in which pupils thrive. Ofsted June 2019

Anyone who visits Caroline Haslett will know that there is a special feeling that permeates the corridors and classrooms. Children and staff build incredibly strong relationships with each other. Behaviour is outstanding and because of this, the school has a calm and positive atmosphere. It really is a safe and caring place where everyone has the opportunity to do what they do best: children get to learn and teachers get to teach!
