About the Role:

Join a Supportive, Ambitious Team KS2 Teacher Opportunity at Charles Warren Academy
Your new role Our lovely primary school in Milton Keynes is seeking a committed fantastic individual to lead a mainstream class in Primary. We pride ourselves on our warm and welcoming atmosphere, where both staff and pupils flourish.

What you'll need to succeed

You will either be a qualified teacher - or an ECT - You'll be able to quickly adjust teaching methods to meet the needs of all children. Have a passion for ensuring you take part in all aspects of school life. You'll have flexibility to be able to handle unexpected situations with professionalism and patience in interactions with a variety of children and situations, with a calm demeanour.

Your new school

Charles Warren Academy, proud to be part of Lift Schools, boasts a wonderful setting with well resourced classrooms and truly exciting outdoor learning spaces. The school benefits from the passionate and dedicated leadership of Principal, Mrs. Danielle Barnes. Since joining Charles Warren as Deputy Principal in September 2018, and taking on the role of Principal in March 2022, Mrs. Barnes, originally from Northamptonshire, has built a strong and supportive leadership team.

What makes our school special?

We value teacher workload: We are committed to ensuring a manageable and fulfilling work-life balance for all our staff.

Part of Lift Schools: As a member of Lift Schools, you'll have the exciting and invaluable opportunity to collaborate, share best practices, and develop professionally through our innovative curriculum networks.

If you would like a tour of the school or a confidential discussion with Danielle Barnes please contact the School Operations Manager - admin@charleswarrenacademy.org

The role is due to commence September 2025. This is a full time, permanent position.
