About our School:

Denbigh School is an excellent school with an enviable reputation. It is a highly successful, over-subscribed comprehensive school with 1750 students aged 11 – 18 and over 200 staff. At Denbigh School, we firmly believe that every student has the right to learn in every lesson, and every teacher has the right to teach without disruption. Our strong expectations around behaviour and engagement foster a calm, purposeful and dynamic environment where both staff and students can thrive. Our school embodies the core values of Kindness & Respect, Engagement, and Doing No Harm. These values are central to everything we do, guiding our approach as a school and as a cohesive team of staff.

Do you have a passion for supporting students with special educational needs?
Are you ready to take the next step in your journey within an inclusive and forward-thinking school?

Denbigh School is seeking a dedicated Deputy SENDCo to support the strategic and operational leadership of our SEND provision. Working closely with the SENDCo, you will play a key role in shaping inclusive teaching practices, leading the SEND team and ensuring students with Special Educational Needs and Disabilities thrive both academically and personally.

You will be instrumental in supporting student transitions, reviewing Academic Profiles, coordinating interventions and leading on access arrangements and statutory processes, including EHC plans. As a line manager to members of the SEND team, your role will also include staff deployment, appraisal and contributing to the ongoing professional development of colleagues.

We are looking for a compassionate, knowledgeable and proactive individual who can bring energy, empathy and expertise to a role that makes a lasting difference to young lives.

Closing date for applications: 21/05/2025
