at 10.45am

Welcome

Councillor James Lancaster, Mayor of Milton Keynes

'Adieu!'

Read by HM Lord-Lieutenant of Buckinghamshire
The Countess Howe

Song 'I'll be Seeing You' by Choral Nova

Exhortation

Chris Roberts - RBL Trustee of the Milton Keynes Rose and
Chairman of the Olney & District Branch

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old.
Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn.
At the going down of the sun, and in the morning, we will remember them.

(All) We will remember them.

Kohima Epitaph

Chris Roberts - RBL Trustee of the Milton Keynes Rose and
Chairman of the Olney & District Branch

When you go home, tell them of us and say:
For your tomorrow, we gave our today

Song 'Abide with me' by Choral Nova

Act of Commitment

John Moffoot MBE (Milton Keynes Rose Trust)

(All)

Make us instruments of peace;
Where there is hatred, let us sow love;
Where there is injury, pardon;
Where there is discord, union;
Where there is doubt, faith;
Where there is despair, hope;
Where there is darkness, light;
Where there is sadness, joy;

In the name of justice, mercy and truth
We express this hope.

National Anthem (all)

God save our gracious King!

Long live our noble King!

God save the King!

Send him victorious,

Happy and glorious,

Long to reign over us,

God save the King.

The military parade will exit the MK Rose followed by HM Lord-Lieutenant, and Mayor. All other guests are asked to remain in position until invited to leave by the marshals at which time all guests are welcome to depart at their leisure.

The Milton Keynes Rose, Campbell Park

The Milton Keynes Rose is available to everyone for celebration, commemoration and contemplation. Designed by internationally-renowned artist, Gordon Young, the Rose was unveiled on 9 November 2013.

The next new pillar inscription will be to celebrate the granting of City Status to Milton Keynes by Queen Elizabeth II in 2022.
