Jubilee Wood School is part of The Grand Union Partnership Multi-Academy Trust

About the Role:

1:1 SEN Teaching Assistant

We are looking for a SEND Teaching Assistant who is passionate about supporting SEND children to achieve regardless of any obstacles in their way. The TA would work either in our school's 'High Needs Room' supporting children with significant SENDs (mostly ASD), or in class with children of similarly significant high needs, supporting them to access lessons when they are able to. Some of our high needs children in our High Needs Rooms sometimes require help with their toileting needs. The children have a range of SENDs, including autism.

Our website has lots of useful information for prospective candidates:

Candidates may want to view our introductory school video to get a sense of what working and learning at Jubilee Wood is like: <https://youtu.be/w2c3IJYcuHY>

The successful 1:1 SEND TA candidate will be:

- patient and interested in children with SEND, and how they learn
 - a creative person with a wide range of skills and interests
 - energetic and enthusiastic about working with children
- committed to working as part of a team - contributing and learning
 - a good communicator with good organisational skills

Enquires regarding the role should be addressed to: Clare.williams@jubileewood.milton-keynes.sch.uk

Closing date: 12pm, 16th October 2025

Interviews: Towards end of week beginning 20th October 2025
