About our School:

Lift Charles Warren is an inclusive primary for children aged 4 to 11, with both mainstream classes and a specialist provision for pupils in EYFS to the end of Key Stage 1. Set in the beautiful village of Simpson the school is surrounded by trees and bordered by the canal, giving children the benefit of extensive grounds and a wonderful environment in which to learn and play. The school is led by an ambitious and dedicated Executive Principle, Mrs Sharon Burke, she has established a strong and personable team and in July 2025 received a fantastic Ofsted with areas being 'good' or 'outstanding'. This is an exciting time to join as we search for an early years teacher to join us.

About the Role:

A rare early years teacher job opportunity to join our outstanding early years provision.

Your new role

At Lift Charles Warren we have high expectations for all pupils. Our aim is for every child to be inspired, challenged and supported to achieve their very best and this role is vital for us to meet that promise to parents and children alike. Due to an unforeseen illness we are looking for an early years teacher to join our outstanding provision. We are very fortunate to have a brilliant outdoor area including a forest school, nature walk and well kept grounds. We are looking for a driven early years teacher to work with two very experienced and capable TA's to deliver a broad and balanced curriculum, facilitating a positive learning environment where all children feel supported and encouraged to reach their full potential.

What you'll need to succeed

You will be a qualified teacher who has patience and understanding with young children. You'll be able to quickly adjust teaching methods to meet the needs of all children. It's important you have the flexibility to be able to handle unexpected situations with professionalism and patience in interactions with a variety of children and situations, with a calm demeanour.

We will review applications and interview ASAP so please apply or make contact ASAP.
