unhappy

What is a complaint?

A complaint is when something has gone wrong and it makes you unhappy.

You can make a complaint when:

-  You had to wait too long
-  Something was not done
-  You got wrong or confusing information
-  Rules were not followed
-  Someone did not communicate well
-  You do not need to say the word "complaint". Just tell us what happened.

What happens when you make a complaint

We will:

Take your complaint seriously and treat you fairly confidential

Keep your information private

Contact you the way you like (email, telephone, letter or face to face)

Who can help you make a complaint

You can ask anyone you trust to help you at any time. This could be:

- A support worker
- A friend
- A family member
- A social worker
- An advocate (someone who speaks up for you)

What we do when we investigate

We will:

- Look carefully at all the information
- Keep things private
- Be fair
- Tell you if it will take a bit longer

We will talk to you about your complaint and how long it may take.

We will always send you a reply

You should get a response in 10 working days (sometimes up to 20).

unhappy

If you are still unhappy

If the problem is not sorted, we will explain how you can move to Stage 2.

This takes 20 working days (sometimes 30).

If you are still not happy you can contact the ombudsman.
