

Community Infrastructure Fund (CIF)

Scoring Matrix

Every CIF application is scored between one and four depending on how it meets the criteria below. The highest scoring projects will then be shortlisted and offered the match funding to complete their projects.

it is very important to include enough detail in the application form to demonstrate how these four categories are satisfied otherwise the project may score poorly and not be offered funding.

Scores

1

2

3

4

Persistent problem	No background of historic problem	Limited background of historic problem	Good background of historic problem	Substantial background of historic problem
Safety	No safety concerns	Limited safety concerns	Good safety concerns	Substantial safety concerns
Community Benefit	No background of community involvement	Limited background of community involvement	Good background of community involvement	Substantial background of community involvement
Added Value	No added value	Limited added value	Good added value	Substantial added value