Class Teacher / English Lead
MPS - UPS + English Lead TLR
Permanent
Start date: 01/09/2026

About our School:

Our staff are our greatest strength, and we are committed to supporting their wellbeing and professional growth.”

We are seeking to appoint two enthusiastic and committed teachers (KS1 and KS2) to join our dedicated and supportive staff team. These exciting opportunities have arisen following internal promotions, reflecting the strong culture of professional development within our school.

One of the posts includes a TLR for English leadership and would suit an ambitious practitioner who is passionate about driving high-quality teaching and learning in English and supporting colleagues to achieve excellent outcomes for pupils.

You will join a collaborative and supportive team where professional development and sharing best practice are highly valued. We are proud of our strong culture of staff development, with many colleagues progressing into leadership roles within the school.

Applications are welcome from both experienced teachers and Early Career Teachers. We welcome visits to the school and encourage prospective candidates to contact us for further information.

Post is subject to Safer Recruitment checks inline with the most recent KCSIE 2025 requirements, including an enhanced DBS check and Teaching checks. This also includes Right to Work evidence.

About the Role:

To deliver high-quality teaching and learning as a class teacher while leading the development of English across the school. The successful candidate will promote excellence in reading, writing and oracy, ensuring that all pupils develop strong literacy skills and a lifelong love of language.

We are looking for a teacher who:

- Is passionate about high-quality English teaching and improving outcomes for all pupils
 - Has strong knowledge of Talk for Reading and Writing approaches
 - Can lead and develop English across the school
 - Demonstrates high expectations and excellent classroom practice
 - Is committed to inclusion and ensuring every child succeeds
- Works collaboratively with colleagues to continually improve teaching and learning

In return we offer:

- Enthusiastic, curious children who enjoy learning
 - A supportive and collaborative staff team
- Opportunities for professional development and leadership
- A school community built on care, ambition and strong relationships

At Langland, we are proud to be Team Langland—a united community committed to ensuring every child achieves their very best.

Closing date for applications: 04/05/2026
