Please be advised that as per KCSIE 2025 all shortlisted candidates will be subject to online checks. Please also be advised we will take up references prior to interview and that one referee must be your last employer. The school provides equal opportunities to all.

About the Role:

At Holne Chase Primary School, we are excited to be recruiting for the brand-new role of Assistant Principal for Inclusion, commencing in September 2026, including the opportunity to open and lead our new SEND provision.

Holne Chase Primary School is part of the Preston Hedges Trust, a growing, high-performing Trust based in Milton Keynes and Northampton. We sit at the heart of the Bletchley community, nurturing children and families to become the best global citizens they can be. Guided by our 'Changemaker' philosophy, pupils are inspired to pursue their dreams through a curriculum rooted in Fun, Creativity and Achievement. We ignite passions, build aspiration and foster a lifelong thirst for learning, empowering our children to become confident, global changemakers.

As an Assistant Principal for Inclusion you will provide strategic leadership to embed an inclusive culture across the school, ensuring that every child can achieve their full potential. This role will initially be without class responsibility, but possible teaching and you will be a key member of the Senior Leadership Team (SLT) before opening and leading our new SEND provision, opening in April 2027.

The role will oversee provision for pupils with special educational needs (SEND) and other vulnerable learners, ensuring that all pupils are able to make excellent progress and achieve the best possible outcomes.

We are seeking a leader who is passionate about inclusion and who truly believes that every child thrives when they experience a deep sense of belonging, supported by a shared philosophy of fun, creativity and achievement.

Closing date for applications: 14/05/2026
