About our School:

At SOFEA you will work with small classes of around 10 to 12 students giving you the space to build genuine relationships and tailor support to each learner. Our therapeutic person-centred approach means patience, understanding and connection come first and you will truly see the difference your work makes every day. We work as a collaborative, multi-disciplinary team, with a commitment to help young people thrive.

Job Types: Permanent, full-time. Applicants looking for part-time or flexible working arrangements will be considered.

Successful applicant subject to an Enhanced DBS check. Starting 1 September 2026.

Work Location: In person at Unit 14, Dawson Road, Milton Keynes, MK1 1LJ

About the Role:

Are you passionate about helping young people grow in confidence, wellbeing and learning? We are looking for an English Teacher to join our Milton Keynes team and make a real impact with young people aged 16 to 19 in a non-traditional setting.

Qualifications

- Full teaching qualification (DTTLS, PGCSE, Cert. Ed.) or willing to work towards one.
- Teaching / training or vocational experience in English and relevant up-to-date knowledge.
- Proven track record of managing and supporting a diverse group of learners through vocationally accredited programmes.
- Excellent communication skills for explaining concepts clearly and engaging with students.
- Patience, compassion, and a commitment to assisting students in achieving their goals.

Skills and Expertise

- Knowledge of the current curriculum to deliver English successfully at Functional Skills and GCSE level.
- Respect for learners and an interest in helping them develop both academically and as people.
- Excellent communication skills for working with disaffected learners, learners with disabilities and their parents/carers.
 - The ability to adapt to teaching other areas such as Life Skills
 - Good listening skills.
 - The capacity to learn quickly.
 - Strong organisational skills.
 - The ability to inspire and enthuse young people.
 - Energy, resourcefulness and patience.
- A caring nature and an understanding of the needs and feelings of young people who have had poor life experiences.
- Experience working with young people who haven't progressed in mainstream education would be advantageous.
 - The ability to work independently, as well as part of a team.
 - A sense of humour and the ability to keep things in perspective.

Benefits

- Small class sizes
- Protected time for planning and marking
- Study for a teaching qualification alongside working
