About the Role:

Whitehouse Primary School is seeking a compassionate, dedicated and resilient Teaching Assistant to join our supportive and inclusive team. This rewarding role involves providing 1:1 support for a child with complex needs, helping them to access learning, develop independence and achieve their full potential.

This is an exciting opportunity for someone who is passionate about supporting children with additional needs and understands the importance of building positive, trusting relationships.

The Role

You will work closely with teachers, SEND professionals and the child's family to:

Provide dedicated 1:1 support throughout the school day.
Deliver personalised learning and intervention activities.
Support communication, social interaction and emotional regulation.
Help create a safe, nurturing and inclusive learning environment.
Monitor and record progress, contributing to reviews and support plans.
Work collaboratively as part of our wider SEND and pastoral team.
We Are Looking For Someone Who:

Has experience working with children with SEND, particularly those with complex learning and communication needs. (although training will be provided for those with less experience)
Is patient, caring and able to build strong professional relationships.
Can remain calm, positive and adaptable in challenging situations.
Has excellent communication and teamwork skills.
Demonstrates high expectations for all children.
Is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children.
Relevant qualifications or training in SEND support would be advantageous.

Closing date for applications: 11/12/2026
